Ballet Associates Information

Director Graham Fletcher Dip RBS (TCPD) RAD RTS is a highly accomplished professional dance teacher, director and choreographer, having enjoyed a prestigious career as a principal of The Royal Ballet Company, star of London West End Theatre, television and film productions as well as teaching at The Royal Ballet School, The Royal Ballet Associates programme and numerous national and international dance schools and companies. Born in Bolton, Lancashire he was the Billy Elliot of his time, with his ambition to become a professional dancer and an inspiration to others by sharing his knowledge and experience as a specialist teacher of dance.

Ballet Associates is aimed at encouraging boy and girl ballet students to reach their full potential and work with other like-minded and aspiring students. Classes are masterclass in style focusing solely on developing ballet technique, strength and virtuosity beyond any normal syllabus work, with particular emphasis on encouraging breadth of movement, performance, artistry and building confidence.
