

Hello all Bronze Awards participants!

I hope you all had a great Easter. Tracey and I are really delighted with the hard work that you are putting into your Bronze Awards. The portfolios are absolutely fantastic and we would like to get as many of them assessed as possible between the start of this term and half term in October, so that we can ensure moderation is booked before Christmas. Everyone is at various stages of completion, so we thought that this approach would be the best option to keep moderation costs as low as possible, and ensure that anyone who started a bit later on has a chance to catch up. As soon as each participant's Bronze portfolio is complete the Silver award can be started straight away.
